Testimonies:

My personal word is that I have experienced a mind-shift and a renewal of my mind, that there is a powerful thing at work here, thing is not even the right word but for lack of one currently. It's a calling and it's experience that can only take a broken person whose wings have been clipped for years and who has stood in a place of hiding for so long out of its safe, secure habitat and bring them to a new dawning of GOD the Father.

If I have learnt anything this week one irrefutable fact stands out. GOD loves me, HIS love takes away my hurt, my pain, my past and HIS love renews me completely, but I have to be willing to allow GOD to love me.
